MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF POST-JUDGMENT AGENCY
CORRESPONDENCE PURSUANT TO FED. R. EVID. 201; MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

RELIEF REQUESTED (FRAP 27(a)(2)(A))

Plaintiff-Appellant Freedom Cheteni, Ph.D., proceeding pro se, respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b)(2) and (c)(2), of the existence, authorship, dates, and contents of seven items of official correspondence between

1 Plaintiff-Appellant and the California Department of Education (“CDE”),
2 dated June 16 through July 3, 2026, attached as Exhibits A–G to the 3 accompanying Declaration. The correspondence post-dates the Opening
4 Brief (DktEntry 9.1, filed April 30, 2026) and bears directly on Arguments
5 IV, IX, and X of that brief. In the alternative, Plaintiff-Appellant requests 6 that this motion and its exhibits be accepted and considered as a notice of 7 supplemental post-briefing developments in the manner of a letter under 8 FRAP 28(j).

11 NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION

12 TO THE COURT AND TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL OF 13 RECORD: PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Plaintiff-Appellant hereby 14 moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, Federal Rule
15 of Appellate Procedure 27, and Ninth Circuit Rule 27-1, for the relief stated 16 above.

18 The correspondence at issue was generated by CDE in the discharge of its 19 official statutory duties under the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”), 20 Gov. Code § 7920.000 et seq. Six of the seven exhibits were authored by,
21 or directed to and answered by, Thomas Prouty, Deputy General Counsel
22 of CDE — counsel of record for Defendants-Appellees in the district court 23 since September 11, 2025 (Dist. Ct. Dkt. 138) and in this appeal. The 24 authenticity of the correspondence therefore is not reasonably subject to 25 dispute between the parties to this appeal, and the Court is supplied with 26
27
28

1 everything Rule 201(c)(2) requires.

3 This motion is based on this Notice, the accompanying Memorandum of Points
4 and Authorities, the Declaration of Freedom Cheteni, Ph.D. and Exhibits
5 A–G thereto, the Opening Brief and Excerpts of Record on file, and all
6 matters of which the Court may take judicial notice.

8 INTRODUCTION

9 The Opening Brief argues, among other grounds, that summary judgment was 10 granted on a record whose evidentiary gaps Defendants themselves
11 manufactured: 364 emails withheld on a privilege log, zero documents
12 produced in response to 72 requests to Defendant Vella, a promised
13 deposition never taken, and ninety percent of a director's deposition 14 blocked at counsel's instruction. Opening Brief, Arguments IV, IX (Fed. R.
15 Civ. P. 56(d)), and X (cumulative assessment under Opara v. Yellen, 57
16 F.4th 709, 723–24 (9th Cir. 2023)).

18
19 After the Opening Brief was filed, the pattern continued — in writing, over the 20 signature of Appellees' own counsel of record. Between June 16 and July 3, 21 2026, Plaintiff-Appellant made four written CPRA requests for a compiled 22 list of California public school district superintendents, including their 23 work email addresses: the gateway to the district-level enrollment data
24 needed to complete the low-income student computation that CDE's own 25 Audits and Investigations Division required of Plaintiff-Appellant under 26 the EANS program, and a category of information encompassed by the 27
28

1 discovery served below (Dist. Ct. Dkts. 99, 100, 141–142, 147) and by 2 counsel's written representation concerning the completeness of 3 Defendants' production (Dist. Ct. Dkt. 155).

5 On July 3, 2026, CDE, through Deputy General Counsel Prouty, answered. It
6 produced a spreadsheet of superintendents from which the email-address
7 field alone had been stripped; invoked Gov. Code § 7922.000; represented
8 that CDE does not create and publicly disclose a spreadsheet of all LEA 9 superintendent email addresses; and stated in the same email that any 10 member of the public may find each superintendent's address by looking up
11 the LEA, one at a time, in CDE's own California School Directory. Exhibit
12 F. The agency's counsel of record has thus confirmed, in an official written 13 communication, that the information at issue resides in CDE's own
14 database and is — in CDE's words — publicly available. That confirmation 15 bears directly on whether summary judgment was properly granted on a 16 record from which the same information was absent, and on the continuing 17 character of the pattern the Opening Brief documents. This motion asks
18 only that the documents in which that confirmation appears be properly
19 before the Court.
20
21
22

23 STATEMENT OF THE POST-BRIEFING DEVELOPMENTS

- 24
- 25 1. On April 30, 2026, Plaintiff-Appellant filed the Opening Brief (DktEntry 26 9.1).
27
28

2. On June 16, 2026, Plaintiff-Appellant submitted a CPRA request to CDE for the public school district superintendent contact list, including email addresses. Exhibit A.
3. On June 26, 2026, Deputy General Counsel Prouty responded by directing Plaintiff-Appellant to public webpages rather than producing the compiled record. Exhibit B.
4. On June 30, 2026, Plaintiff-Appellant clarified the request. Exhibit C. On July 1, 2026, Mr. Prouty responded. Exhibit D. Later on July 1, 2026, Plaintiff-Appellant sent a further letter addressing both the request and representations made to the district court in No. 3:23-cv-06286-SI. Exhibit E.
5. On July 3, 2026, CDE, through Mr. Prouty, produced a spreadsheet of local educational agency superintendents omitting the email-address field; invoked Gov. Code § 7922.000 on the stated theory that a compiled list “needlessly facilitates mass cyberattack attempts and mass commercial spam”; represented that CDE does not create and publicly disclose a spreadsheet of all LEA superintendent email addresses; and conceded in the same email that each address is individually published in the California School Directory — CDE's own public website, generated from the same database that holds the withheld field. Exhibit F. The denial identified no person responsible, notwithstanding Gov. Code § 7922.540(b).

1 6. On July 3, 2026, Plaintiff-Appellant served a demand letter responding to the 2 denial, demanding the exact statute relied upon and identification of each
3 person responsible for the denial under § 7922.540(b), and giving notice
4 that the correspondence would be presented to this Court. Exhibit G.

6 7. Mr. Prouty has been counsel of record for Defendants-Appellees since his 7 Notice of Appearance on September 11, 2025 (Dist. Ct. Dkt. 138). His 8 signature appears on Defendants' Statement Re: Status of Their Document
9 Production (Dist. Ct. Dkt. 155, Oct. 28, 2025) — the operative written 10 representation to the district court concerning what had and had not been 11 produced — and on the summary judgment motion, declarations, briefing, 12 and argument (Dist. Ct. Dkts. 167–170, 173, 175, 182). Judgment issued on 13 that record. Dist. Ct. Dkts. 183, 185.
14
15

16 LEGAL STANDARD

17 Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b)(2) permits judicial notice of any fact “not 18 subject to reasonable dispute” because it “can be accurately and readily 19 determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be 20 questioned.” Notice is mandatory, not discretionary, where “a party
21 requests it and the court is supplied with the necessary information.” Fed.
22 R. Evid. 201(c)(2); Khoja v. Orexigen Therapeutics, Inc., 899 F.3d 988, 23 999 (9th Cir. 2018). Judicial notice “may be taken at any stage of the 24 proceeding,” Fed. R. Evid. 201(d), including on appeal and as to events
25 occurring during the pendency of the appeal. Bryant v. Carleson, 444 F.2d 26
27
28

353, 357 (9th Cir. 1971).

This Court routinely takes judicial notice of matters of public record and of the records, reports, and official acts of administrative bodies. Lee v. City of Los Angeles, 250 F.3d 668, 689–90 (9th Cir. 2001); Mack v. South Bay Beer Distributors, Inc., 798 F.2d 1279, 1282 (9th Cir. 1986), abrogated on other grounds by Astoria Fed. Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. Solimino, 501 U.S. 104 (1991); Reyn's Pasta Bella, LLC v. Visa USA, Inc., 442 F.3d 741, 746 n.6 (9th Cir. 2006). It likewise takes notice of information made publicly available on government websites where neither party disputes the site's authenticity or the accuracy of the information displayed. Daniels-Hall v. National Education Ass'n, 629 F.3d 992, 998–99 (9th Cir. 2010). Where the fact noticed is the existence, authorship, date, and content of a document — as distinct from the truth of contested assertions within it — notice is proper. Lee, 250 F.3d at 689–90; Khoja, 899 F.3d at 999.

ARGUMENT

I. THE CORRESPONDENCE IS A PROPER — AND, ON THIS SHOWING, A MANDATORY — SUBJECT OF JUDICIAL NOTICE

Exhibits A–G are official correspondence generated in CDE's statutory response to a CPRA request: the official act of a state agency discharging duties imposed by Gov. Code §§ 7922.500–7922.545. Their existence, dates, authorship, and contents can be accurately and readily determined from the documents themselves, and cannot reasonably be disputed by

1 Appellees: their own Deputy General Counsel authored the agency's side of 2 the exchange, and the statements on CDE's side are the written statements
3 of a party opponent. Cf. Fed. R. Evid. 801(d)(2). The California School
4 Directory to which the July 3 email points is CDE's own public government
5 website, precisely the category of source this Court noticed in Daniels-Hall,
6 629 F.3d at 998–99.

8 Plaintiff-Appellant is careful about the scope of the request, as Khoja instructs.
9 899 F.3d at 999–1000. Notice is sought of the existence, authorship, dates,
10 and contents of the correspondence — including what CDE itself said in it
11 — not of the truth of any assertion that Plaintiff-Appellant disputes.
12 Nothing in the request asks the Court to resolve a contested fact by way of 13 notice.
14
15

16 Nor is timing an obstacle. The correspondence post-dates the Opening Brief
17 and could not have been included in the Excerpts of Record. Rule 201(d)
18 and Bryant, 444 F.2d at 357, exist for exactly this circumstance:
19 developments during the pendency of the appeal that bear on the questions
20 presented. Because the request is properly limited and the Court is supplied 21 with the necessary information, notice is mandatory under Rule 201(c)(2).
22

23 II. THE CORRESPONDENCE BEARS DIRECTLY ON ARGUMENT IX
24 — SUMMARY JUDGMENT WAS PREMATURE UNDER RULE 56(d)
25 ON A RECORD WHOSE GAPS DEFENDANTS MANUFACTURED
26
27
28

1 Argument IX of the Opening Brief demonstrates that summary judgment was 2 granted while six categories of essential evidence remained withheld, and 3 that the resulting record was a void manufactured by Defendants. Opening
4 Brief, Argument IX; Family Home & Fin. Ctr., Inc. v. Fed. Home Loan
5 Mortg. Corp., 525 F.3d 822, 827 (9th Cir. 2008). The July 3, 2026
6 correspondence supplies post-judgment confirmation from the agency
7 itself: the compiled superintendent contact data — the gateway to the 8 district enrollment data underlying the low-income computation CDE's 9 own auditors demanded of Plaintiff-Appellant — exists as a field in CDE's 10 own California School Directory database and, in CDE's own words, is 11 publicly available address by address. Exhibit F.
12

14 The concession is material in either direction. If the information is publicly 15 available, as counsel's July 3 email represents in writing, then it was 16 equally available throughout the district court proceedings, was responsive 17 to the discovery served there, and was withheld while counsel's written 18 representation concerning the completeness of Defendants' production
19 (Dist. Ct. Dkt. 155) was before the district court. If, instead, it is not 20 practicably obtainable through the individualized lookup “process” counsel
21 described — one LEA at a time, across every district and county office in 22 the state — then the written representation of public availability is itself
23 inaccurate. Either branch bears on whether the Rule 56(d) showing should 24 have been honored below and on the relief the Opening Brief requests. The 25
26
27
28

1 Court cannot fairly evaluate that argument without the documents in which
2 the agency's own current position appears.

4 III. THE CORRESPONDENCE BEARS ON ARGUMENTS IV AND X — 5 THE CONTINUING PATTERN AND THE CUMULATIVE MOSAIC

6 Argument IV documents the discovery-obstruction pattern below: blanket
7 objections (Dist. Ct. Dkts. 100, 100-1), agreed-then-missed production
8 deadlines (Dist. Ct. Dkts. 141–142), a 364-email privilege log (Dist. Ct.
9 Dkt. 147), and deposition obstruction (Dist. Ct. Dkts. 152–154). Argument
10 X presents the cumulative evidence mosaic that Opara, 57 F.4th at 723–24,
11 requires be assessed in its totality, not item by item. A post-judgment denial 12 of the same category of information, issued during the pendency of this 13 appeal, by the same counsel of record, on a rationale conceding the 14 information is not exempt, and without the identification of responsible 15 persons that Gov. Code § 7922.540(b) commands, is a continuation of that 16 pattern — documented in the agency's own correspondence rather than in 17 any characterization by Plaintiff-Appellant. The Court should have the 18 complete, current picture before it when it assesses the mosaic.
19
20 21

22 The correspondence also bears on the weight of the representations catalogued
23 in the Opening Brief. An agency that told the district court its production
24 was complete, and now tells the requester in writing that the same
25 information is publicly available while declining to export the database
26 field that contains it, has placed its own written positions in conflict.
27
28

1 Weighing that conflict is for the Court; this motion asks only that the 2 documents in which it appears be properly before the Court.

4 IV. NO PARTY WILL BE PREJUDICED, AND ALTERNATIVE 5 RELIEF IS AVAILABLE

6 Appellees authored or received every exhibit; nothing here is unfamiliar to 7 them, and they retain a full opportunity to respond under FRAP 27(a)(3)
8 and to be heard on the propriety of notice under Fed. R. Evid. 201(e).
9 Judicial notice of the correspondence enlarges no claim and adds no new 10 theory: it supplies post-briefing documentation of arguments already 11 squarely presented at Arguments IV, IX, and X of the Opening Brief. In the 12 alternative, if the Court prefers, Plaintiff-Appellant requests that this filing 13 be accepted and considered in the manner of a supplemental letter under 14 FRAP 28(j), limited to its bearing on those arguments.
15

17 CONCLUSION

18
19 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff-Appellant respectfully requests that the 20 Court: (1) take judicial notice, pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2) and 21 (c)(2), of the existence, authorship, dates, and contents of Exhibits A 22 through G to the accompanying Declaration; (2) in the alternative, accept 23 and consider this motion and its exhibits as a notice of supplemental 24 post-briefing developments in the manner of FRAP 28(j), directed to 25 Arguments IV, IX, and X of the Opening Brief; and (3) grant such other 26 and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Dr. Saint Freedom,

Attached is an Excel spreadsheet containing the name of the applicable local educational agency (LEA) (e.g., school district, county office of education), which county it resides in, the name of the superintendent, their phone number (and any extension, if provided), and the mailing address. This information is also included in the California School Directory and downloadable Public Districts data file, previously made available to you. Any member of the public may find the provided email address of a particular superintendent by looking up the LEA in the California School Directory. But CDE does not create and publicly disclose a spreadsheet of the email addresses of all LEA superintendents. Such a record is exempt from disclosure under the CPRA because it needlessly facilitates mass cyberattack attempts and mass commercial spam such that the public's interest in disclosure is clearly outweighed by its interest in nondisclosure. Gov. Code § 7922.000.

I refrain from responding to your email's incorrect contentions and inappropriate accusations.

Mr. Prouty,

My reply landed closer to 10:00 a.m. than to it. That was too tight a window to hold you to, and I withdraw the ultimatum on today's timing alone. Nothing else in this letter is withdrawn.

I write to you as both a journalist and the Superintendent of The VR School — the world's first school built on AI and blockchain technology, see Audit Report from the California Department of Education Director, Alice Lee sent to The VR School on the findings of the audit and monitoring review. I am happy to send you the Bates numbers or actual Audit Findings from Alice Lee if you would like.

I will start with what CDE has already found, in its own house, on its own audit. The Audits and Investigations Division completed a statutory audit of The VR School — its funds were used to meet VR contractual obligations through payment agent NELNET (FACTS)— and CDE reached its own unambiguous conclusion that FACTS-NELNET, not CDE was responsible for paying the vendors it engaged with under contract, not CDE or our Governor. I did not make that audit finding. CDE did. The U.S. District Court has separately made its own finding that the state-law causes of action I filed in the lawsuit you refer to below belong in state court, not before Judge Illston. Add to that a fact with no ambiguity in it at all: CDE instructed me to keep and pay for EANS 1 storage while Deputy Superintendent McGee decided where and when to ship it. Three findings, three different sources, none of them mine.

Here is why the timeline does not end when the program did on December 31, 2025 and why I need the excel spreadsheet at issue to file my state law claims on a complete evidentiary record. EANS documentation must be retained by school districts for five years from the program's conclusion; the statute of limitations on certain claims does not start running until that clock stops, and runs another two to three years after. I am inside that five year window now to maintain all documents under EANS and so is every Superintendent regardless of their race or participation in protected activity. It is the final evidentiary piece I need in building the record for state-law and contractual claims against some payment agents CDE's own auditors found responsible for paying vendors it engaged with. That record requires enrollment counts from every California public school district where VR School students reside, computed against the formula CDE's own Audits and Investigations Division provided to me. My students live across this state and I am entitled to getting the district enrollments required by the Audits and Investigations team to compute low income counts. I need the superintendents who serve them — name, email, address — and I need them from YOU, because you are the one person at CDE who has spent three letters proving you would rather explain how to get the names and emails on the website rather than produce the simple spreadsheet. It is literally a spreadsheet.

Mr. Peter Stubbs did answer my request for similar data before you came on board. Mr. Peter J. Stubbs produced a complete Excel spreadsheet of every Nonpublic School superintendent in California — name, email, address, county — the exact fields Nonpublic

Schools were required to use to determine eligible students under ARP EANS. You have had three opportunities to do for Public School superintendents what he already did for Nonpublic School superintendents, and three times you have sent me a Nonresponsive web page instead of a spreadsheet. A public servant who can point to the format he needs to match, and still won't produce it in that format, is not confused about what I am asking for. He is declining to answer while appearing to. This is your character, Mr. Prouty.

That is not a stylistic complaint. It is the specific conduct the American Bar Association and California Rules of Professional Conduct exist to reach, and I intend to say so, formally, if it continues. So here is one more chance, offered in good faith and for the last time: produce the Public School superintendent list in the same format Mr. Stubbs used for the Nonpublic School list — same fields, same structure (name, email, address, county). This request is already well past the number of days the Act allows, and meet-and-confer has run its course.

One correction, because it matters: this was never a request to you as a man. It was always a request to CDE. So if you are personally declining to respond and speaking for the agency in doing so, say that in writing, and name the CDE employee who will produce the document instead. When that person produces it — or when nobody does — I will move for sanctions and a bar referral in the Ninth Circuit, and this letter, together with everything above it, becomes Exhibit A for why.

Consider this, too, notice of my intent to file a State Bar complaint against you personally. You are an officer of this court, and I intend to hold you to what that title requires. It is my position — stated here so you have the chance to respond to it before I file anything — that you represented to a federal judge that Carrie Lopes had reviewed my interrogatory responses and found them insufficient, when her own deposition testimony says she never saw them, you lied Mr. Thomas Prouty; and that you signed declarations in Ms. Lopes's and Ms. Vella's names and filed them in federal court without their knowledge (See all Lopes' Declarations which she never signed, but counsel did without her knowledge). Mr. Stubbs, whatever else is true here, was practicing law. If the above is accurate (which it is), you were not — you were practicing on a federal judge's trust in her own courtroom, and I intend to find out, on the record, whether it is. You lied multiple times to a Federal Judge and I will not stop until justice prevails, including having you disbarred. Advocacy is one thing, lies...not acceptable. You work for the public Mr. Thomas Prouty and I have no disdain for the lies you tell yourself, but ones you tell a Federal Judge or make on behalf of Carrie Lopes and Malia Vella. They are grown women who don't need you to lie on their behalf and their deposition is the truth, not your lies disputing what they said under oath.

So: produce the spreadsheets you told Judge Illston you had already produced. If you cannot, I will treat the silence as the answer per your threat below, and argue that your discovery motions were built to deceive a Federal judge who ruled on the strength of statements that were not true. Your statements. See Send the superintendent list. There will be no more emails about it after this one.

This is a demand.

Dr. Saint Freedom,

I refrain from responding to your contentions about your lawsuit and alleged needs and aims. I am sorry you are having trouble accessing superintendent name and contact information, contained in the downloadable file and directory published on the CDE webpage. If you let me know which of the links that I provided you that are struggling with, I can try to provide you with further directions. I believe that the downloadable file is too large to send via email.

Dear Mr. Thomas Prouty,

CC: kiedc@thevrschool.org
admin@thevrschool.org

Your directions seem to be the same incomprehensible directions provided by Mr. Peter J. Stubbs in response to a discovery request which you claimed (falsely) to Judge Susan Iiston was fulfilled. If the information requested is as obvious as you make it sound to determine the percentage of students in the attendance areas needed to compute EANS 1 and EANS 2 numbers, please provide the excel spreadsheet and attach it to this email. I did not ask for the entire district level data files. I need all the contact information including emails and addresses of the superintendents so that I can request certain information Nonpublic Schools are required to have used under the EANS program to determine enrollment counts.

Please do know that this information is was overdue and I have given you more than enough time to produce. If it is not produced by 4pm today, I will escalate this request to Judge Iiston today.

Thank you,
Dr. Saint Freedom

Your June 16, 2026 email requested a “list of all public school superintendents and contact details including but not limited to emails, phone number, addresses and counties of their student attend areas.” The California Department of Education (CDE) webpage publishes the California School Directory, which provides information about California school districts and county offices of education, including name and contact information of the entity’s superintendent and the associated county, here: California School Directory \(CA Dept of Education\). More information about the California School Directory and the information it contains is available here: About California School Directory \(CA Dept of Education\). In addition, the CDE webpage publishes a Public Districts data file, which provides information about all school districts and county offices of education, including but not limited to superintendent name and address, telephone number, fax number, and associated county. The Public Districts data file can be downloaded in both Excel and tab delimited text formats here: Public Schools and Districts Data Files - County-District-School Administration \(CA Dept of Education\). Dr. Saint Freedom,

The California Department of Education (CDE) has determined that it has public records reflecting expenditures to conduct the monitoring review of The VR School. Certain responsive records may contain information that is exempt from disclosure under the California Public Records Act under one or more exemptions, including but not limited to the exemption for applicable legal privileges (Gov. Code § 7927.705) and the public interest in non-disclosure clearly outweighing the public interest in disclosure (Gov. Code § 7922.000). Nonexempt portions of responsive public records will be disclosed. CDE requires time to complete its review and estimates that it will be in a position to produce nonexempt responsive records by July 14, 2026.

Dr. Saint Freedom,

On Friday, June 5, I sent you the email below regarding your public record act request. Late Saturday night, I received an email from you asserting that CDE has “not accounted for the EANS budget that April Woodcheke stated was provided to her team to conduct the Monitoring Review of The VR School.” Your email threatened to file a lawsuit on Tuesday (tomorrow) if “those” were not provided by the close of business today, Monday, June 8th. Our correspondence confirms that your prior record requests did not encompass records reflecting expenditures for the monitoring review of The VR School. Those requests related to costs of defending against your administrative challenges to CDE’s findings and your lawsuit, not for conducting the monitoring review. Thus, there is no basis for your threatened lawsuit. The CDE can treat your June 6 email as a new public record act request, which I interpret as a request for: “records reflecting the expenditure of funds to conduct the monitoring review of The VR School.” CDE will be providing you with a response under the California Public Records Act regarding this new request within the next 5-6 business days.

Dr. Saint Freedom,

This correspondence follows the California Department of Education's (CDE) prior correspondence (March 16, April 13-14, and 24) regarding your California Public Record Act (CPRA) request, and CDE's earlier productions in response to that request on April 13 and 24. CDE has completed its review of responsive records and is now producing its remaining nonexempt responsive records. Certain redactions on individual employee earning statements were made based on the following CPRA exemptions: (a) the exemption for private information in personnel or similar files (Gov. Code § 7927.700); (b) the exemption for personal contact information of agency employees (Gov. Code § 7928.300); and (c) the public interest in non-disclosure clearly outweighing the public interest in disclosure (Gov. Code § 7922.000). In addition, certain redactions on attorney-client invoices were made based on the following CPRA exemptions: (a) the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine (Gov. Code § 7927.705; Evid. Code § 954; Code Civ. Proc. § 2018.000 et seq.); (b) the exemption for records pertaining to pending litigation (Gov. Code § 7927.200); and (c) the public interest in non-disclosure clearly outweighing the public interest in disclosure. As previously noted, there are no "internal 'effort reports,'" "time studies" or "[b]udgetary 'codes' or 'project numbers'" used to track time or expenditures related to your litigation.

There are some CDE attorney calendar entries related to your lawsuit; however, such records are exempt under the following exemptions: (a) the exemption for records pertaining to pending litigation (Gov. Code § 7927.200); (b) the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine (Gov. Code § 7927.705; Evid. Code § 954; Code Civ. Proc. § 2018.000 et seq.); and (c) the public interest in non-disclosure clearly outweighing the public interest in disclosure.

Dr. Saint Freedom,

Your April 14, 2026 email broadened your recent Public Record Act request to include records reflecting total compensation for certain employees since January 1, 2020 and records reflecting/summarizing costs and time spent on your federal lawsuit and administrative proceedings. CDE has determined that it has public records responsive to your broadened request (e.g., records reflecting total compensation, costs in connection with the administrative proceedings, etc.) but does not have other records you have identified (e.g., “internal ‘effort reports’ or ‘time studies,’” etc.). However, CDE needs time to complete its search for responsive records and to determine if such records, or parts thereof, contain information that is exempt from disclosure under one or more exemptions under the California Public Records Act, including but not limited to: (a) the exemption for applicable legal privileges (Gov. Code § 7927.705), such as the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, and deliberative process privilege; (b) the exemption for private information in personnel or similar files (Gov. Code § 7927.700); (c) the exemption for personal contact information of agency employees (Gov. Code § 7928.300); and (d) the public interest in non-disclosure clearly outweighing the public interest in disclosure (Gov. Code § 7922.000).

I estimate that CDE will be able to complete its search, review for exemptions, make any necessary redactions and make its nonexempt, responsive records available to you on or about June 5, 2026. However, nonexempt responsive records available sooner will be produced sooner. To that end, I have attached a record reflecting all costs charged to CDE by the Office of Administrative Hearings(OAH)/Department of General Services in connection with the OAH proceedings.

RE: PUBLIC RECORDS ACT REQUEST –
COMPREHENSIVE LITIGATION COSTS AND SALARY DISCLOSURE

Dear Mr. Prouty,

Thank you for your correspondence dated April 14, 2026. While I appreciate the nonresponsive production of certain records, the California Department of Education's (CDE) position that it does not track attorney time or maintain a ledger of litigation costs is inconsistent with the transparency requirements of the California Public Records Act (CPRA) and established California case law regarding the expenditure of public funds.

Under the CPRA (Gov. Code § 7921.000 et seq.), the public has a fundamental right to know how its tax dollars are being spent, particularly in the defense of litigation against the State. The assertion that CDE attorneys do not "bill" their time does not exempt the agency from disclosing records that reflect the allocation of their time or the resulting costs of their labor.

Legal Authority for Disclosure

1. Salary and Compensation as Public Record:

The California Supreme Court has definitively ruled that the names and exact salaries of public employees are a matter of public record and are not exempt under privacy clauses. In International Federation of Professional and Technical Engineers, Local 21, AFL-CIO v. Superior Court (2007) 42 Cal.4th 319, the Court held that "the public has a legitimate interest in knowing how the government spends its money, including the amount of compensation it pays to its employees."

2. Litigation Costs and "Attorney-Client Privilege":

While specific communications may be privileged, the costs and invoices associated with litigation are generally public. In Los Angeles County Bd. of Supervisors v. Superior Court (2016) 2 Cal.5th 282, the Court ruled that legal invoices for "concluded" matters (such as the federal lawsuit mentioned) are not categorically exempt, particularly when they involve the expenditure of public funds.

3. Duty to Assist and Search:

Under Gov. Code § 7922.600, the CDE has an affirmative duty to assist the requester in identifying records and information that are responsive to the request.

Comprehensive Public Records Request

To ensure a complete accounting of the public resources expended on matters involving my person and/or my organizations, please provide the following records for the period of January 1, 2020, to the present:

I. Compensation and Personnel Records

1. Complete salary information, including base pay, bonuses, and benefits, for the following individuals: Thomas Prouty, Jimmy Franco, Peter Stubbs, and any other CDE Legal and Audits Branch staff who appeared in or provided support for the federal lawsuit, OAH proceedings, or USDOE administrative matters.

2. Any internal "effort reports," "time studies," or calendar entries for the aforementioned individuals that reflect time allocated to my federal lawsuit or related administrative proceedings.

3. Pay stubs or W-2 summaries (redacted for private personal info) reflecting the total compensation paid to these individuals during the years they were assigned to these matters.

II. Administrative and OAH/USDOE Costs

1. All records reflecting costs incurred in the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) and the U.S. Department of Education (USDOE), including but not limited to:

- Filing fees, hearing room rentals, and court reporter fees.
- Travel vouchers, mileage reimbursements, and lodging receipts for CDE staff.
- Expert witness fees, consultant fees, or specialized investigator costs.

2. All internal purchase orders (POs) or payment vouchers issued to third-party vendors (e.g., transcript services, e-discovery vendors) related to these matters.

III. Budgetary and General Ledger Records

1. Budgetary "codes" or "project numbers" used by the CDE Legal and Audits Branch to track expenditures related to my litigation.
2. Extracts from the CDE's general ledger or financial accounting system showing all debits and credits associated with the specific case numbers for the federal lawsuit and administrative proceedings.
3. Any reports provided to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction or the CDE executive team summarizing the financial impact or "legal spend" of these specific matters.

Production Timeline and Format

Regarding your estimate of June 5, 2026, for the administrative records: This 52-day delay exceeds the "reasonable" timeframe contemplated by the CPRA for records that should be readily identifiable in your financial systems. I request that you produce records on a rolling basis as they are identified.

Please provide these records in electronic format (PDF or Excel) to freedom@thevrschool.org. If the CDE chooses to withhold or redact any portion of these records, you must identify each specific exemption and provide a "privilege log" explaining how the exemption applies to each redacted document.

I look forward to your 10-day determination regarding the salary and compensation portion of this request.

Dr. Saint Freedom,

CDE provided records reflecting costs incurred due to your federal lawsuit. The records provided did not relate only to deposition costs. As a state agency, CDE did not incur filing fees with the Court. Further, CDE was represented in the lawsuit by in-house counsel who are paid a set salary for all of their work on all matters. Those in-house attorneys worked on multiple matters and did not bill or track the time they spent defending your lawsuit. Therefore, CDE does not have records reflecting how much time those attorneys spent defending the lawsuit.

Your email below mentions salaries. CDE has determined that it has records reflecting each of its employee's salary. However, for reasons addressed above, such records do not show costs incurred in defending your lawsuit. Thus, records containing employee salaries were not responsive to your earlier request. However, if you would like records containing salary information, then CDE can provide such records. (For your information, I believe that a third-party site, Transparent California, purports to provide salary information for all California employees, although I cannot attest to its accuracy: Transparent California.) If you would like public records that provide CDE employee salary amounts, then please let me know what specific employees and years you are requesting. I estimate that CDE will be able to provide employee salary information within 14 days after I receive these additional details about your request.

Your email below also mentions CDE's costs for the proceedings in the Office of Administrative Hearings and at the U.S. Department of Education. In light of your email below, CDE has determined that it has public records relating to costs it incurred in connection with those OAH and USDOE administrative proceedings. However, CDE needs time to complete its search for responsive records and to determine if such records, or parts thereof, contain information that is exempt from disclosure under one or more exemptions under the California Public Records Act, including but not limited to: (a) the exemption for applicable legal privileges (Gov. Dr. Saint Freedom,

The California Department of Education (CDE) is in receipt of your March 12 email clarifying your request for public records reflecting costs that your lawsuit has imposed on CDE and/or the State. The CDE has begun the process of assessing its public records in light of your recently clarified request and has determined that it has one or more responsive, non-exempt public records. However, the CDE needs additional time to complete its search for responsive records and determine if such records, or parts thereof, contain information that is exempt from disclosure under one or more exemptions under the California Public Records Act, including but not limited to: (a) the exemption for applicable legal privileges (Gov. Code § 7927.705), such as the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, and deliberative process privilege; and (b) the public interest in non-disclosure clearly outweighing the public interest in disclosure (Gov. At this point, I estimate that CDE will be able to complete its review and make its nonexempt, responsive records available by April 14, 2026, and I will be in touch with you about that by then.

Mr. Prouty,

Thank you for your response and for providing the Box link to the previously produced documents.

However, your statement that the California Department of Education does not possess public records reflecting an accounting of what this case has cost the State of California, or a ledger of time spent and by whom, raises serious concerns. Government litigation necessarily involves public expenditures, including attorney time, staff hours, outside counsel if used, deposition costs, transcript preparation, filings, and other administrative expenses. Those expenditures must be recorded somewhere within state financial, budgeting, or legal billing systems.

To be clear, my request is not limited to a single document titled "accounting of this case." Under the California Public Records Act, responsive records include any documents that reflect the costs associated with the matter, including but not limited to:

- internal billing records or time entries
- budget allocations or expenditure reports related to the litigation

- invoices for deposition transcripts, filings, or litigation services
- records reflecting staff hours charged to the matter
- communications or reports summarizing litigation expenditures

If the Department truly maintains no such records, please confirm that in writing and identify the systems or offices that track litigation expenditures for the Department. If such records are maintained by another state office (for example, the Attorney General's Office, Department of Justice, or state financial management systems), please direct this request accordingly.

Given that this litigation involved public officials and public funds, transparency regarding the cost to California taxpayers is a legitimate public interest.

Please also confirm that all responsive records within the Department's possession, custody, or control have been searched for and produced.

I appreciate your prompt attention to this request and look forward to your response.

Respectfully,

Dr. Saint Freedom

Some of the links are not working and I am still waiting for the video deposition as soon as CDE receives it. I will post it on YouTube for the state court in San Francisco.

Please send me all box.com links with the production in this matter now that it is clear that I did not receive a closure notice. A due process requirement defendants know is clearly established under the Constitution.

Finally, please send the complete accounting of what this entire case from inception to now has cost the Great State of California. I intend to address that too. A complete ledger and time spent and by whom will be helpful. NELNET must pay the state back and I have a plan on how to proceed.

RE: California Public Records Act Request — Public School District Superintendent Contact List (Including Email Addresses); Response to CDE's July 3, 2026 Denial Under Gov. Code § 7922.000; Demand for the Exact Statute Relied Upon and Identification of the Persons Responsible for the Denial Under Gov. Code § 7922.540(b); Cheteni v. California Department of Education, No. 26-2278 (9th Cir.)

Dear Mr. Prouty:

I write in response to your email of this morning, July 3, 2026, in which the California Department of Education (“CDE”) produced a spreadsheet of local educational agency (“LEA”) superintendents that deliberately omits their email addresses, and in which you invoked Government Code section 7922.000 to justify withholding a compiled list of those email addresses on the theory that it “needlessly facilitates mass cyberattack attempts and mass commercial spam.” Two questions were put to you, and I restate them here formally.

1. DEMAND FOR THE EXACT STATUTE

Please provide the exact statute that prohibits the State from providing the email addresses of public school superintendents. Section 7922.000 is not such a statute. It is the CPRA's catch-all balancing provision, and it prohibits nothing; it permits withholding only where the agency carries its burden of demonstrating, on the facts of the particular case, that the public interest in nondisclosure clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure. I need these email addresses to obtain the district enrollment data required to compute low-income student counts in the attendance areas of VR School students — the very computation CDE's own Audits and Investigations Division required under the EANS program, using the formula that Division itself provided to me. The retention window for EANS documentation is still open, and this data is the final evidentiary piece for state-law claims arising from CDE's own audit findings.

2. DEMAND FOR IDENTIFICATION OF THE PERSONS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DENIAL

Please clarify in writing whether this is you personally refusing to produce the email addresses, or the California Department of Education. This is not a rhetorical question; it is a statutory requirement. Government Code section 7922.540(b) provides that a notification of denial “shall set forth the names and titles or positions of each person responsible for the denial.” Your July 3 email denies a portion of my request without identifying any responsible person. Please cure that defect today by naming each person responsible for the decision to withhold the compiled superintendent email list. The distinction is material to my next steps in obtaining this data.

3. THE § 7922.000 INVOCATION FAILS AS A MATTER OF BLACK-LETTER LAW

The constitutional baseline. Cal. Const. art. I, § 3(b)(1): “The people have the right of access to information concerning the conduct of the people's business, and, therefore, the meetings of public bodies and the writings of public officials and agencies shall be open to public scrutiny.” Section 3(b)(2) is the interpretive engine: a statute “shall be broadly construed if it furthers the people's right of access, and narrowly construed if it limits the right of access.” Every ambiguity in your position must be resolved against withholding.

The burden and the standard. Under section 7922.000, the agency — not the requester — bears the burden of demonstrating “a clear overbalance on the side of confidentiality.” Michaelis, Montanari & Johnson v. Superior Court (2006) 38 Cal.4th 1065, 1071; CBS, Inc. v. Block (1986) 42 Cal.3d 646, 652. Generalized, speculative assertions of harm do not carry that burden; courts “must be alert to contentions by government entities that exaggerate the interest in nondisclosure, lest they be used as a pretext for keeping information secret for improper reasons.”

Your “cyberattack” theory has already been rejected on stronger facts. In County of Santa Clara v. Superior Court (2009) 170 Cal.App.4th 1301, the county invoked the catch-all exemption and even the federal Homeland Security Act to withhold its GIS basemap, claiming security risks. The Court of Appeal ordered disclosure: hypothetical security concerns do not clearly outweigh the public's right of access. Likewise, in Commission on Peace Officer Standards & Training v. Superior Court (2007) 42 Cal.4th 278, the Supreme Court held that a computer database of peace officer names and employing agencies was a disclosable “writing,” rejecting categorical safety-based withholding — for peace officers. If a statewide database of law-enforcement officers must be disclosed over safety objections, the work email addresses of public school superintendents — senior public officials whose contact information exists precisely so the public can reach them — cannot be withheld on a theory of spam.

Each address is, by your own admission, already public. Your email concedes that “[a]ny member of the public may find the provided email address of a particular superintendent by looking up the LEA in the California School Directory.” Information that the agency itself publishes, address by address, cannot generate a “clear overbalance” against disclosure merely because it is requested in aggregate. The public-interest balancing runs on the information, not on the convenience of its format. And the format question is itself answered by statute: where an agency holds an identifiable, non-exempt public record in electronic format, it must make it available in electronic format upon request, including through data compilation or extraction from its existing database. Gov. Code §§ 7922.570, 7922.575; Sierra Club v. Superior Court (2013) 57 Cal.4th 157 (county required to produce its parcel database in the requested electronic format; constitutional canon requires the construction that maximizes access); ACLU of Northern California v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 1032, 1047. The email addresses reside in the same California School Directory database that generates the public webpage and the Public Districts data file. Exporting an existing database field is production of an existing record, not creation of a new one.

No personal-privacy exemption applies. Government Code section 7928.300 protects the personal contact information of an agency's employees. Work email addresses of LEA superintendents are official, not personal; superintendents are public officials of their own districts, not CDE employees; and the public's right to know how to reach the officials who administer its schools is at the core of the CPRA. See International Federation of Professional & Technical Engineers v. Superior Court (2007) 42 Cal.4th 319, 328–329 (public employees' names and salaries disclosable; “the public has a legitimate interest in knowing how the government spends its money” — and, a fortiori, in knowing who administers it and how to reach them); City of San Jose v. Superior Court (2017) 2 Cal.5th 608 (public business is public record wherever it resides).

CDE has already produced this exact record — in this exact format. Mr. Peter J. Stubbs produced to me a complete Excel spreadsheet of every Nonpublic School superintendent in California — name, email, address, county — the very fields nonpublic schools were required to use to determine eligible students under ARP EANS. CDE cannot claim that the identical compilation for public school superintendents “needlessly facilitates mass cyberattack” when CDE itself created and disclosed the same compilation for nonpublic school superintendents without incident. That prior production is fatal to any claimed “clear overbalance.” It also fixes the required format of your production. Gov. Code § 7922.570(b).

4. THE LITIGATION CONTEXT AND YOUR DUTY OF CANDOR

This request does not arise in a vacuum. It is part of the evidentiary record surrounding Cheteni v. California Department of Education, No. 26-2278 (9th Cir.), on appeal from No. 3:23-cv-06286-SI (N.D. Cal.) (Illston, J.), and the correspondence trail is now extensive: my June 16, 2026 request; your June 26 response directing me to webpages; my June 30 clarification; your July 1 response; my July 1 letter; and your July 3 production of a spreadsheet stripped of email addresses. As stated in my July 1 letter, it is my position — stated so that you have the opportunity to respond before I file anything — that representations were made to Judge Illston concerning discovery and production that the record does not support, including the representation that Ms. Lopes reviewed my interrogatory responses when her own deposition testimony states she never saw them, and the filing of declarations whose signatories deny knowledge of them. I intend to present those questions, on the record, to the appropriate tribunals.

You have been counsel of record since your Notice of Appearance on September 11, 2025 (Dkt. 138), and every defense filing thereafter bearing on the status of production carries your signature, including: Defendants' Statement Regarding Plaintiff's Non-Compliance (Dkt. 149, Oct. 20, 2025); Defendants' Statement Re: Status of Their Document Production (Dkt. 155, Oct. 28, 2025) — the operative written representation to Judge Illston concerning what had and had not been produced; Defendants' Objections (Dkts. 165, 178); the Motion for Summary Judgment and its supporting declarations of Lopes, Woodcheke, Hayano, Franco, Vella, Pierson, and McGee (Dkts. 167–170, Jan. 30, 2026); and the Opposition and Reply briefing (Dkts. 173, 175). You argued the cross-motions at the March 3, 2026 hearing (Dkt. 182). Judgment issued on the strength of that record. Dkts. 183, 185.

Take notice regarding transcripts: should the need arise, Plaintiff will obtain the official transcripts of the proceedings at which representations concerning the completeness of production were made to Judge Illston — including the March 3, 2026 summary judgment hearing (Dkt. 182, 32 minutes, Zoom-recorded) and the April 18, 2025 case management conference (Dkt. 98) — for presentation to the Ninth Circuit and to the State Bar. The Transcript Designation (Dkt. 189) and Motion for Preparation of Transcripts at Government Expense (Dkt. 190) are already on file. The record of what was said is preserved and will be quoted verbatim.

5. THE DISTRICT-COURT DOCKET: THE DATA WAS REQUESTED, AGREED TO, AND WITHHELD

For the record — and for the State Bar's file — the docket in No. 3:23-cv-06286-SI documents that the categories of information at issue here were formally requested in discovery, that production was promised, and that it was never completed:

- Dkt. 99 (Apr. 18, 2025): Certificate of Service of Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents to Defendant Vella — 72 requests.
- Dkt. 100 & 100-1 (May 24, 2025): Plaintiff's emergency motion under Rules 36(a) and 37(a)(3), attaching Exhibit 1: “Malia Vella Objection to Produce any Document” — the blanket refusal to produce a single document in response to all 72 requests.
- Dkt. 112 (June 26, 2025): Plaintiff's emergency ex parte motion to prohibit deletion of emails by CDE employees and for an evidence-preservation order — email preservation has been squarely at issue in this case for over a year.
- Dkt. 119 (July 29, 2025): Plaintiff's motion to compel and for sanctions, with 31 exhibits, including Vella's July 24, 2025 production and the Alice Lee materials.
- Dkt. 130 (Aug. 13, 2025): Plaintiff's 332-page opposition containing Defendants' own produced emails, Bates E0015416–E0015522 — including the $450,000 monitoring budget emails — and Dkt. 131 (Aug. 13, 2025), attaching “Lopes Allocated $450000 to Woodcheck” and the Randi Thompson notes on FACTS-NELNET refunds.
- Dkts. 141–142 (Sept. 12–16, 2025): Plaintiff's emergency application to compel production of “Documents Plaintiff Identified and Respondents Agreed to Produce by September 5, 2025.” Defendants' own agreement to produce is thus a matter of record; the deadline passed under your watch as counsel of record.
- Dkt. 147 (Sept. 25, 2025): Plaintiff's reply attaching Defendants' privilege log — the 364 withheld emails, including the entire May 17–18, 2023 cluster.
- Dkt. 148 (Oct. 15, 2025): Plaintiff's memorandum on withheld responsive documents in Vella's privilege log — the withholding was briefed and preserved.
- Dkts. 152–154 (Oct. 24, 2025): Plaintiff's motions to compel the depositions of Woodcheke and Thompson (failure to appear at noticed depositions), McGee (90% of questions blocked at your instruction, Dkt. 153 at 2–7), and Vella.

The pattern this docket records — requests served, agreements to produce, deadlines missed, blanket objections, a privilege log burying the operative emails, and dispositive judgment granted on that artificially truncated record — is the context in which CDE now produces a superintendent spreadsheet stripped of the email field. The same pattern will be presented, docket entry by docket entry, in the pending appeal.

6. IMPACT OF THE JULY 3 DENIAL ON THE PENDING NINTH CIRCUIT APPEAL — AND THE CAPACITIES, INDIVIDUAL AND OFFICIAL, IN WHICH IT WAS MADE

The Opening Brief in No. 26-2278 was filed on April 30, 2026 (DktEntry 9.1). Argument IX of that brief presents the Rule 56(d) question: summary judgment was granted on a record whose evidentiary gaps Defendants manufactured — 364 withheld privilege-log emails, zero documents produced in response to Vella's 72 requests, a promised deposition never taken, and 90% of a director's deposition blocked at counsel's instruction. Argument IV documents the same obstruction pattern as an independent ground for remand. Your July 3 denial does not sit outside that appeal; it becomes part of it, because it is the same conduct — information necessary to Plaintiff's claims, requested repeatedly, acknowledged to exist in CDE's own database, and withheld — continuing after judgment, during the pendency of the appeal, by the same counsel of record.

The request was made repeatedly, and the delay was chosen, not incidental. The record of this single CPRA request now spans four written requests over seventeen days: June 16 (the request); June 30 (clarification, after your June 26 response directed me to webpages rather than the record); July 1 (renewed demand); and my July 1 letter — answered on July 3 by a production stripped of the single field requested. At no step have you denied that the compiled email field exists in the California School Directory database from which your own spreadsheet was exported. Instead, you offered a “process”: that I look up each LEA, one at a time, across every district and county office in the state. Offering a requester an extraction process that would require individually querying the entire universe of California LEAs — while the agency holds the identical data as a single exportable field — is not access. It is constructive denial dressed as access, and it was offered with full knowledge that it could not practicably be performed within the retention window that makes this data evidentiary. Sierra Club v. Superior Court (2013) 57 Cal.4th 157 forecloses exactly this maneuver: where the data exists in the agency's database, the agency must export it in the requested electronic format; it may not point the requester to a piecemeal rendering that defeats aggregate use.

The individual and official capacities converge — and the July 3 email is the admission that connects them. In your official capacity as Defendants' counsel of record since September 11, 2025 (Dkt. 138), you administered the discovery posture cataloged in Section 5: the blanket objections, the agreed-then-missed production deadlines (Dkts. 141–142), the 364-email privilege log (Dkt. 147), and the deposition obstruction (Dkts. 152–154). Summary judgment was granted on that artificially truncated record — a record from which Plaintiff was denied the district-level data needed to complete the low-income student computation that CDE's own Audits and Investigations Division required under EANS, using the formula that Division itself supplied. Now, in your individual capacity — as the author of the July 3 email and the person exercising the section 7922.000 judgment on this request — you withhold the gateway to that same data on a rationale that concedes it is not exempt: that “any member of the public” may find each address in the Directory. Those two positions cannot coexist. If the information is publicly available, as your email represents in writing and in your own name, then it was equally available during the district-court proceedings, was responsive to discovery served there, and was withheld while written representations concerning the completeness of production (Dkt. 155) were before Judge Illston — and it cannot now be withheld in aggregate. If, on the other hand, it is not practicably available through the lookup “process” you describe — and it is not, as you know — then the representation of public availability is itself inaccurate. Either branch of that dilemma is material to the appeal, and either branch belongs in the State Bar's file.

This is why the § 7922.540(b) demand matters. The demand in Section 2 that you identify each person responsible for this denial is not procedural formalism. Whether the July 3 denial is the institutional act of the California Department of Education or your individual determination fixes responsibility for the pattern the Ninth Circuit will be asked to evaluate: the same attorney controlling both the discovery record on which judgment was granted below and the post-judgment public-records channel through which the withheld information would otherwise be obtained. An attorney who, in his official capacity, resisted production of evidence critical to the summary judgment record, and who, in his individual capacity, now blocks the public-records route to the same information while asserting in email that it is “publicly available,” has placed the two capacities in direct conflict — and has documented that conflict in his own correspondence.

Notice of presentation to the Ninth Circuit. This correspondence — the June 16, 2026 request through your July 3, 2026 denial, inclusive — will be presented to the Ninth Circuit in No. 26-2278 by appropriate mechanism, including a letter of supplemental authorities and developments under FRAP 28(j) and/or a motion for judicial notice, as post-briefing developments bearing directly on Argument IX (summary judgment premature under Rule 56(d) on a record whose gaps Defendants themselves manufactured), Argument IV (the discovery-obstruction pattern), and Argument X (the cumulative evidence mosaic under Opara v. Yellen, 57 F.4th 709 (9th Cir. 2023)). A denial issued while the appeal is pending, by counsel of record, of the very category of information whose absence from the summary judgment record the Opening Brief documents, is not collateral to the appeal. It is confirmation of it.

7. THE GOVERNING AUTHORITY ON ATTORNEY CANDOR — PRECEDENT

So that the record is complete, the following is the black-letter law and the controlling disciplinary precedent that will accompany any State Bar complaint and any filing in the Ninth Circuit:

Bus. & Prof. Code § 6068(d): It is the duty of an attorney “[t]o employ, for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to him or her those means only as are consistent with truth, and never to seek to mislead the judge or any judicial officer by an artifice or false statement of fact or law.”

Bus. & Prof. Code § 6106: “The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty or corruption ... constitutes a cause for disbarment or suspension.”

Cal. R. Prof. Conduct 3.3(a)(1): “A lawyer shall not knowingly ... make a false statement of fact or law to a tribunal or fail to correct a false statement of material fact or law previously made to the tribunal by the lawyer.”

Cal. R. Prof. Conduct 8.4(c): It is professional misconduct for a lawyer to engage in “conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or reckless or intentional misrepresentation.”

Bach v. State Bar* (1987) 43 Cal.3d 848, 855. Misleading or attempting to mislead a judge violates section 6068(d); such conduct “constitutes moral turpitude and warrants discipline.” The Supreme Court held the attorney “was duty bound not to mislead or attempt to mislead the court” regardless of whether he believed he had colorable arguments — the validity of the underlying position is irrelevant to the candor violation.

Davis v. State Bar* (1983) 33 Cal.3d 231, 240. Misrepresentation to a court is an act of moral turpitude warranting discipline.

Grove v. State Bar* (1965) 63 Cal.2d 312, 315. Concealment of a material fact misleads the judge as effectively as a false statement; there is no distinction between concealment, half-truth, and false statement of fact. A violation of section 6068(d) necessarily involves moral turpitude under section 6106.

In the Matter of Jeffers* (Review Dept. 1994) 3 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 211. State Bar Court precedent treating misrepresentation to a court under sections 6068(d) and 6106 as a single, serious offense of moral turpitude.

In the Matter of Kun* (Review Dept. 2018). Attorney disbarred where he sought to mislead a judge in filings, in violation of section 6068(d) and section 6106; the Review Department reaffirmed that seeking to mislead a judge “necessarily involves moral turpitude.”

The teaching of this line of authority is uniform: an attorney who makes a false statement to a federal judge — or who fails to correct one — commits an act of moral turpitude, and the duty to correct under Rule 3.3(a) (1) and (c) continues through the conclusion of the proceeding, which, with the appeal pending, has not concluded.

8. DEMANDS

First, produce today, by reply email, the public school district superintendent list in the same format Mr. Stubbs used for the Nonpublic School list — same fields, same structure: name, email, address, county. This request is well past the determination and production periods of Gov. Code §§ 7922.535–7922.540, and meet-and-confer has run its course.

Second, if any portion remains withheld, identify in writing the exact statutory exemption relied upon and the names and titles of each person responsible for the denial, as § 7922.540(b) commands.

Third, preserve all records — emails, database extracts, drafts, and internal communications — concerning this request and its handling. This letter is a preservation demand.

Absent full production today, I will proceed to enforce this request, including by petition under Gov. Code § 7923.000 et seq. (with mandatory attorney's fees and costs to a prevailing requester under § 7923.115), and I will present this correspondence, together with the authorities above, to the Ninth Circuit and to the State Bar of California as previously noticed.

Govern yourself accordingly.

Respectfully submitted,
